To whom it may concern,

Extreme disappointment doesn't even begin to describe my feelings about the, so called, settlement with Microsoft concerning the anti-trust case. In my view, it wasn't a settlement, it was a "GET OUT OF JAIL FREE" pass.

You can bet that Microsoft will continue the same business practices that brought the lawsuit to start with, only I fear it will become worse than ever.

I'm not certain a breakup of Microsoft was the answer, but some sort of significant and substantial penalty was certainly in order.

Some day this lawsuit will have to be repeated and maybe next time Microsoft will actually pay for it's sins. I do wonder if someone in the DOJ is a little richer.....MS was found to be a monopoly and went free. Hmmmm. At least MS will not get any more of my $$$.

Regards,
A very disappointed and dis-believing tax payer.
